RAMONA LIBRARY LAUNCHING "BULLDOG BOOK CLUB" FOR TEENS Ramona High School Students Can Earn Reading Credit for Fall 2004

The Ramona Branch of the San Diego County Library, 1406 Montecito Rd, Ramona, announces "Bulldogs Book Club," a program for teens to gain school credit for participating in a library book club. There are two books and four opportunities to be part of this program.

Copies of the books are available without charge in paperback at the library, beginning Friday, August 13, 2004. Ramona High students can stop in, sign up, pick up a book and get a head start on fall reading.

The following is a schedule of the four book club meetings.

For more information, phone the Library at (760) 738 -2434.
